- Your participation is voluntary.

PURPOSE

We are conducting a survey to explore healthcare providers' views regarding the PrEP service package, drawing on your experiences delivering PrEP services and or other reproductive health and HIV services.

The study is designed to meet the following objectives concerning provision of PrEP:

1. Evaluate providers' familiarity and knowledge of PrEP: effectiveness, safety, side-effects, eligibility criteria, screening, initiation and follow-up requirements
2. Explore providers' attitudes and beliefs towards PrEP delivery to target populations, with focus on adolescent girls and young women.
3. Explore providers' views on whether it would be feasible and acceptable to add PrEP delivery to HIV and reproductive health services, based on their experiences delivering those services.

You are being asked to participate in this research study which assesses health care providers' knowledge, attitudes and practices relevant to PrEP service provision. Up to 124 providers will participate in this survey. The purpose of the study is to explore healthcare providers' views regarding the PrEP service package, drawing on your experiences in delivering PrEP services and or other reproductive health and HIV services. You were selected as a possible participant in this study because you are a health service provider.

PROCEDURES AND DURATION

If you decide to participate, you will be asked to participate in a survey. The purpose of the survey is to gather information to help us understand more about what needs to happen for successful PrEP roll out to take place. We will also collect demographic information, including your gender and age, and information about your job. The interview will take place in a private room and will take an hour.

RISKS AND DISCOMFORTS

- There may be some questions that make you feel embarrassed or awkward, but you are free to decline to answer any questions you do not wish to answer.
- We will protect anything you tell us during the discussion to the best of our ability, so your information will not be shared with anyone outside of the study.
- There are no direct benefits or costs to you for participating in this study.
- However, you will be helping us collect information that could help improve PrEP and other reproductive health service delivery.

REIMBURSEMENT:

You will be reimbursed for the time spent for the study interview. A reimbursement amount of not more than US$5 or the Zimbabwe equivalent will be provided at completion of the interview.

CONFIDENTIALITY

All the information you provide which clearly identifies you (for example, your name) will be kept confidential to the best of our ability and will only be disclosed with your permission. The information will only be shared with those working on the study. Other information you provide that does not directly identify you may be shared with others. The information will be used to enhance service delivery in PrEP and other reproductive health services.

ADDITIONAL COSTS

There will no additional costs incurred by participating in this study.

VOLUNTARY PARTICIPATION

Participation in this study is voluntary. Participation is not a requirement of your employment. Your supervisor knows that participation is voluntary, and your supervisor will not be told who participates and who does not. If you decide not to participate in this study, your decision will not affect your future relations with Pangaea study staff. If you decide to participate, you are free to withdraw your consent and to discontinue participation at any time without penalty. You are free to skip any question you do not want to answer.
